

Purchase agreement

Seller:

Buyer:

Name:
Address:
Phone:
e-mail:

Name:
Address:
Phone:
e-mail:

Information about the cat:

Name of the cat:
Pedigree number:	Breed:	Date Of Birth:
Color (EMS-code):	Sex:	ID number (microchipnumber):
Sire:	Color (EMS-code):	Pedigree number:
Dam:	Color (EMS-code):	Pedigree number:
The cat will be used for (Pet/Breed):	Which documentation of health follows the cat? (Health certificate or EU pet passport?):
The cat is vaccinated with:	Latest vaccination date:	Revaccination must be done no later than:
Date of vet healthcheck:	Remarks:
Has the cat been dewormed (Yes/No)?	Date:	Deworming product information:

Price:

Price:	All cats that are sold must be accompanied by a WCF pedigree
Reservation fee:	Reservation fee paid on:
Remaing balance:	Remaining balance paid on:
The buyer can return the cat (Yes/No):	Conditions of possible return of cat:
Other: The cat has to be at least 12 weeks old, when it is given into the care of the new owner. The cat should not be re-homed, sold or euthanized before the seller has been informed. The buyer is committed to look out for the cats best interest when it comes to basic needs as feeding and welfare. If the cat gets sick in any way a vet has to be contacted immediately. The cat should be taken to a yearly check-up with a vet. Any additional terms can be added on page 2 and 3 of this contract.

By signing this contract both seller and buyer declares to fully understand the terms that have been agreed regarding the transaction of the said cat. Both parties have recieved a copy of the agreement. Buyer confirms that he/she has checked the said cat and found it to be in good health. The Seller confirms that, by the best of his/her ability, the buyer has been informed of any faults the said cat might be suffering from. The seller confirms that the buyer has been given information regarding feeding, care taking and treatment of the said cat. If the said cat is sold with any fault(s), the seller has an obligation to tell the buyer about such fault(s) and in that case they are listed on page 2 or 3 af this agreement under "additional terms".

Place:	Date:
Sellers signature:	Buyers signature:

Purchase agreement – page 2

The cats name and pedigree number:
Additional terms:

Place:	Date:
Sellers signature:	Buyers signature:

The cats name and pedigree number:

Additional terms – continued from page 2:

Place:	Date:
Sellers signature:	Buyers signature: